Sermon Scripture:

Matthew 6:13

Sermon Thought:

There are several times in scripture when following God is compared to a journey of some kind: "light to my path," "run the race," Christians were referred to as followers of "the way." The Lord's prayer also includes that idea with the request for God to "lead us...." It is no secret that following God is not an easy task. There are lots of ways that lead away from him. God does guide us in the way of righteousness. It is our job to pay attention to where he is leading.

Sermon Questions:

1. How is being tested different from temptation, and temptation different from sin?
2. What ways the Lord might lead us away from temptation?
3. What can you take away from or what stood out to you from, "The Lord's Prayer" sermon series?
