Sermon Scripture:

Nehemiah 4 & 6

Sermon Thought:

Wait, we already talked about opposition in this sermon series! That's right, the Jews faced opposition again as they rebuilt. This is a reminder that opposition is a constant when we live different from the world around us while following God. If we expect opposition, we will be better prepared for when it comes.

Sermon Questions:

1. Hard things happen to everybody; share a time of hardship in your own life. It could be about relationships, health, tragedy, work and so on.
2. How can you prepare for hard things to come?
3. What can we learn about God while going through hardships? What can we learn about ourselves while going through hardships?

Westview Boy's Home Update

Dear Brethen,

When I was taking a Christian Evidences class many years ago, one of the things I was taught was that where there is a design, there must of necessity be a designer as well. The other day, a boy came to my office and saw a box of seeds. He loves gardening of any kind and told me about some seeds he recently planted. "They are already sprouting," he said, "even though I only planted them a few days ago. As our discussion moved forward, I told him how with many plants, you can clip off a shoot, stick it in a glass of water, and watch as the shoot develops roots, and it then becomes a plant separate from the parent plant. Why do plants do this? It is because they, and us, have a magnificent designer. Thank you for your wonderful financial support of Westview and our programs. Every day, we are blessed with opportunities to declare the wonders of our world and how God is the great designer. We are able to share these lessons, and so many more, because you enable us to do so through your support.

Each day, as I watch boys grow, I see the difference you are making in their lives. Truly you are a blessing to this ministry, to us as we work here, but most of all, you are a blessing to the lives of the young men entrusted to our care. Thank you for all you make possible.

Your fellow servant in Christ,

Chip Moore
