Sermon Scripture:

Hebrews 12:1

Sermon Thought:

Christian life is often pictured as running a race. This race is a long-distance race that many have run before. Runners often show up to the race in sweats and bulky shoes. But to run the race, they strip off anything that might hinder them. In our Christian life, we too must throw off anything that could hinder us.

Sermon Questions:

1. In running the Christian life, how do we prepare or add to ourselves to succeed?
2. How do we throw off anything that might slow us down?
3. How are you doing in the race at this point in your life?

Revealing God

Delighting in the Law of the Lord

Our human passions and desires can quickly lead us astray. As we embrace the realities of our daily lives, we look around and observe what the world is doing, and it appears pleasing to the eye. We desire to have what others have, and we lose focus on what is truly valuable to us. John gives us this caution and encouragement: “For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life is not of the Father but is of the world.” He tells us all those things pass away, “but he who does the will of God abides forever” (1 Jn. 2:16-17). So, what can we do? We need to focus our spiritual eyes on the “Law of the Lord.”

We are introduced to this healing concept as David begins to share his spiritual perspectives in the psalms. He tells us, “Blessed is the man,” not one who follows the ways of the world, but whose “delight is in the law of the Lord” (Ps. 1:1-2). We will be blessed with the joys of life and have success in the things we do. “He is like a tree planted by streams of water, that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers” (Ps. 1:3). The things we see people of the world doing may seem tempting for a moment, but their end is destruction. Delighting in the law of the Lord brings us peace and harmony because we are doing the will of God. Moses affirms the blessing we receive when we “obey the voice of the Lord your God, being careful to do all his commandments which I command you this day” (Deut. 28:1-6). You see, as we meditate on the law of the Lord, our lives are also transformed into the “glory of the Lord” (2 Cor. 3:18). Our human desires will be filled with godly things, and we will never be left wanting for the good things in life. Let us then be delighting in the law of the Lord’s day and night until the Lord takes us home!
