Sermon Scripture:

Psalm 103:11-12

Sermon Thought:

God's grace and forgiveness can be difficult to grasp. We may know we are forgiven, but we still feel the guilt of messing up. If our sins are forgiven, what will be judged on when we face judgement?

Sermon Questions:

1. Do you have fear of judgment? Why or why not?
2. How do you understand God's forgiveness working?
3. How can we imitate God's forgiveness?

New Prayer Concerns:

Glenn Walker – his mom passed away last week

Family of Cody Dodson – family friend of Jovita; was killed in a farming accident

Greg Jantz – Gordon & Carol's son; pray that he will be selected for a management position in the car dealership he works for

Psalm 139:13-16 (NIV)

¹³ For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴ I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.

¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from you
when I was made in the secret place,
when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw my unformed body;
all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

I have been struggling to get this written, so I got out my 1985 dictionary, and I looked up each of the words above.

You are all these wonderful words and more. I have felt them over and over the last 6 months. You have been my rock and my constant comfort. I am totally humbled and encouraged by all of you. You have helped me to feel a peace I did not think was possible. God is so good. He has chosen to carry me in his arms again, like so many times before in my life. This time He helped me see people as His messengers. God is good, all the time. He is with me; I will not forget.

Love,

Kathy Dittmeyer
