Sermon Scripture:

John 1:42-44; Acts 9:36-42

Sermon Thought:

Peter was a fisherman, Dorcas was a seamstress, what do you do? We each have jobs, hobbies, interests and so on. As we go about doing those and interacting with others we need to keep our focus on people, not the tasks.

Sermon Questions:

1. Why is it so easy for us to turn people into projects or problems rather than emphasizing their humanity?
2. What instances in Jesus' life can you recall that show him caring for those around him as people rather than projects?
3. What changes must we make within ourselves to value those around us as people instead of projects?

New Prayer Requests:

- Carol Jantz – recovering from shoulder surgery
- Willie Russell – his feet have been swelling
- Renny Hartman Family – prayers as they navigate the loss of Renny
- Jim Osburn – recovering from a fall
- Debbie Martin – health issues

Birthdays:

Do you have 1 hour a week to change a child's life? The Glenwood Elementary School Reading Interventionalist needs Book Buddies for her students. Please consider giving 1 hour of your time to read with a student every week for the 1st semester of school, starting in the middle of September. Check the welcome center for more information or talk to Judy Watson.
