Sermon Scripture: Matthew 14:22-29

Sermon Thought: Peter and Jesus had many interactions that were at or near water. As we read about these encounters, we find the water increasingly getting deeper, but at the same time Peter's faith deepens. As we follow God, it is important for us to continue to take steps into deeper and deeper waters of faith in our own lives. Even if sometimes we have doubts or even failures along the way.

Sermon Questions:

1. What "deep waters" have you experienced in your life?
2. What were the successes and what were the failures long the way?
3. How did your faith grow during this time

Thank You

Carol, Brent, Kathy, Kira, and Brynna,
Thank you so much for the beautiful bag filled with everything librarians use. This was such a thoughtful gift. Library Media Centers very rarely are showered with supplies and so we pay for it out of pocket. You have blessed me so much.

Sarah Lasater

Thank you for thinking of the crossing guards at Glenwood. Your thoughtfulness means so much more than words can say.
